Welcome to

@theUSM

@theU is an entirely original web site with free membership to current and prospective college students as well as their family members and friends. @theU is also the first internet site in the nation that has a loyalty program that members can use to reduce the balance of a student's loan. You are just a click away from filling out an application for a student loan, searching for scholarship information, purchasing books/CDs/clothing and other items in the mall, making travel arrangements, and much more. Move your mouse pointer over the objects in the @theU picture for an overview of each area or come in and visit our web community. @theU has it all!

ATM - UniBucks™ Manager

70 UNIPAC keeps track of UniBucks and posts them to your account within seven to fourteen days from your purchase date. Due to product returns, refunds, credits, etc., there is a 30 day waiting period until funds become available to transfer or apply to your student loan balance. For terms and conditions on the UniBucks program, go to FAQ. The UniBucks meter keeps track of all your UniBucks earned and how much is available to be applied to your designated student loan account. You may transfer any UniBucks that are in 'Earned' status to another @theU account.
